That all references to towns apply to that territory wholly contained in each of the towns of Oneida County as of January 1, 2020. All references to election districts apply to that territory wholly contained in each of the election districts enumerated on the official maps kept by the Oneida County Board of Elections as of April 1, 2022.

That the above described districts are enumerated and set forth on maps filed with the Clerk of the Board of County Legislators of Oneida County, which maps shall remain on file and shall be considered and hereby are made a part of the Oneida County Charter and the Oneida County Administrative Code.

The Chairman of the Board of County Legislators of Oneida County shall have the power to appoint after consultation with the Legislative body either (1) a bi-partisan committee of six Board members or (2) a five member non-partisan commission comprised of qualified individuals, that are not elected to the Board of Legislators or otherwise prescribed by State Law, for the purpose of reapportioning legislative districts as set forth under this provision. The Majority and Minority Leaders shall recommend two members each for appointment, and the Chairman of the Board of County Legislators shall appoint one member who will serve as chairman of the commission.

The appointed committee or commission shall evaluate the existing county legislative districts for equity and representation in relation to population within a reasonable time period after the publication of the results of the regular federal census taken in Oneida County in the year Two Thousand and Thirty, or within a reasonable period of time after the publication of the results of any federal population census taken in Oneida County or within a reasonable period of time after the publication of the results of any federal or special population census taken pursuant to Section Twenty of the General Municipal Law and held not more than once every five years; or, after any annexation which has the effect of increasing or decreasing the population of any county legislative district by more than ten percent.

The committee shall study the population data and, within six months after its appointment, make recommendations, if necessary, in the form of a proposed local law as to changes in the boundaries of the county legislative districts. In their deliberations to redesign the legislative districts, the committee shall consider the application of the "one person, one vote" concept of previous federal court decisions and compliance with the Equal Protection Clause of the 14th amendment of the United States

Constitution and Article I, Sections 1 and 11 of the New York State Constitution and shall apply same irregardless of municipal boundaries.

Within seven months after the submission of the report of the committee, which shall be submitted to the County Board of Legislators in the form of a local law, the Board of County Legislators shall conduct a public hearing on the proposed changes, if any, and shall then enact a local law setting forth revised district boundaries subject to a referendum on petition pursuant to Section 24 of the Municipal Home Rule Law.

If at any time a local law setting forth revised district boundaries is defeated in a referendum, within ninety days of such defeat of referendum, the legislative district revision committee shall be reactivated to study and prepare a new proposed local law for submission to the Board of County Legislators, subject to the same procedures and requirements as provided for above.

2. That this local law shall take effect upon the 46th day after the final enactment of this local law pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 24 of the Municipal Home Rule Law of New York State.
